NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION NYSBA

New York State Bar Association Continuing Legal Education publications are intended to provide current and accurate information to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. Publications are distributed with the understanding that NYSBA does not render any legal, accounting or other professional service. Attorneys using publications or orally conveyed information in dealing with a specific client's or their own legal matters should also research original sources of authority.

We consider the publication of any NYSBA practice book as the beginning of a dialogue with our readers. Periodic updates to this book will give us the opportunity to incorporate your suggestions regarding additions or corrections. Please send your comments to: CLE Publications Director, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, NY 12207.

ROSE MARY BAILLY, ESQ.

As Executive Director of the New York State Law Revision Commission, Rose Mary Bailly's work includes developing recommendations for legislative reform. Ms. Bailly has written and lectured widely on the topic of guardianship law; most notably she is author of McKinney's Practice Commentaries for Article 81 of the Mental Hygiene Law and powers of attorney governed by the General Obligations Law. She is also an Associate Editor of Guardianship Practice in New York State (Robert Abrams, Esq., Editor-in-Chief, NYSBA 1998).

Ms. Bailly is an active member of the New York State Bar Association. She is also the editor-in-chief of the Government, Law and Policy Journal. She is a fellow of the Brookdale Center on Aging at Hunter College. Ms. Bailly received her law degree from Fordham University School of Law, where she was Commentary Editor of the law review.

PROFESSOR LEONA BEANE

Leona Beane is Professor Emeritus of Law at Baruch College (City University) in New York City, where she taught for 21 years. Professor Beane received her B.B.A. and M.B.A. from the City College of New York, M.S. from Columbia University and J.D. from New York Law School. She has been a practicing attorney involved in the closely held business, estates and guardians, and is an active member of several bar associations. She has chaired and/or lectured at several programs over the years for the New York State Bar Association: "Drafting Corporate Documents for the Close Corporation," "Forming and Advising Businesses" and others. She chaired and lectured at programs on guardians and Article 81 of the Mental Hygiene Law, having lectured in different parts of the state for the several different Bar Associations. In 1998 and 1999, Ms. Beane lectured at several judicial seminars on guardianship topics. She has also lectured at the Judicial Institute in April 2003 and the Guardianship Roundtable in May 2011. She serves on the Board of Advisors to the Vera Guardianship Project and assisted in the initial training of its staff.

She is a past president of both the National Association of Women Lawyers and the Association of Small Claim Arbitrators, and she is an arbitrator and mediator for the U.S. District Court, Eastern and Southern Districts. She is also an arbitrator for the Financial Industry Regulatory Agency (FINRA). She is a mediator in the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court, New York County; the Bankruptcy Court, Eastern and Southern Districts; the EEOC and Safe Horizon, in addition to several other forums. She is also a Mediator/Special Master in the Appellate Division. She had been Chair of the Arbitration and ADR Committee of the New York County Lawyers' Association for four years. She was Vice-Chair of the Dispute Resolution Section of the New York State Bar Association for two years, is currently Website Chair of the Section and continues to serve on its Executive Committee. She is a member of the New York chapter of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals.

She has published several articles on various legal topics, including partnership law, contracts, guardians, guardians ad litem and mediation relating to estate matters and guardianship. She also is a chapter author and an Associate Editor of Guardianship Practice in New York State (NYSBA 1998).

In recent years she has been devoting more of her practice to ADR matters. In 2012, she organized a program on "The Basics of Mediating Trusts and Estates Disputes" for the NYSBA.
