MYLAN L. DENERSTEIN

Mylan L. Denerstein currently serves as Counsel to Governor Andrew M. Cuomo. In this capacity, Ms. Denerstein is the chief counsel and principal legal advisor to the Governor.

Ms. Denerstein served as the Executive Deputy Attorney General for Social Justice throughout the administration of then-Attorney General Cuomo. In this position, Ms. Denerstein managed approximately 100 attorneys statewide in the areas of charities, civil rights, environmental protection, health care, labor, and tobacco compliance.

Prior to that, Ms. Denerstein served as the Deputy Fire Commissioner for Legal Affairs for the New York City Fire Department, the largest municipal fire department in the country. Ms. Denerstein was responsible for managing all litigation for the Department and for providing legal advice and counsel to the Commissioner, executive staff, and all units of the Department.

Ms. Denerstein previously served in the United States Attorney's Office, Southern District, first as an Assistant United States Attorney, where she prosecuted complex securities and insurance fraud, money laundering, and organized crime cases, and then as Deputy Chief of the Criminal Division, where she assisted in managing the Criminal Division with over 100 Assistant United States Attorneys.

Ms. Denerstein was a Skadden Fellow at the Children's Defense Fund, where she advocated on a range of issues, particularly in the area of education. She has also served as an Adjunct Professor of Law at New York University School of Law.

Ms. Denerstein is a graduate of the University of Virginia and Columbia Law School, where she was a Charles Evans Hughes Fellow, and the recipient of the Jane Marks Murphy Prize.
