NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

The New York State Bar Association's Criminal Justice Section is offering a full tuition scholarship to the

2013 Young Lawyers Section Trial Academy

March 20-24, 2013

The 2013 Trial Academy scholarship is being offered to any member of the New York State Bar Association and will be awarded to a deserving attorney in memory and honor of Jack Litman, Esq., and esteemed member of the Criminal Justice Section whose passion was for equal justice, diversity and the promotion of skill in the legal profession.

The scholarship will provide full tuition and registration; the awardee is responsible for his or her own room, board and travel expense. Some meals and receptions will be included at the Trial Academy.

The New York State Bar Association's Trial Academy is a five-day trial techniques program that will teach, advance and improve the courtroom skills of young and newly admitted attorneys with an emphasis on direct participation and will be held at the Cornell School of Law, located in Ithaca, NY.

Under New York's MCLE rule, this program has been approved for a total of 37.5 credit hours; 2.0 credits in Ethics and 35.5 credits in Practical Skills. This program is transitional and therefore suitable for newly-admitted attorneys.
