□ YES! As a member of the New York State Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Section, please consider me for appointment to the committees below.

Labor and Employment Law Section – Committee Opportunities

Make the most of your Section membership by joining a Section Committee. Section committees are a great way to work on areas of interest to you, build your professional credentials and have an impact upon the law.

Please indicate the committees of greatest interest to you, and rank them in terms of 1, 2, and 3 (1 indicating the committee which is of most interest). Every effort will be made to place Section members on their most preferred committee.
