Antitrust Law Students:

Submit now to the NYSBA Section of Antitrust Law

Annual Law Student Writing Competition

$5,000 cash prize and publication of the winning article

How to Enter:

1.) Eligible articles must be written by a currently-enrolled J.D. or LL.M. student at a New York State Law School or by a New York State resident at any ABA-accredited law school outside of New York State.

2.) Eligible papers include seminar papers, as well as notes, comments and articles prepared for law journals and should generally be 20-30 pages in length, with footnotes. In no event may papers exceed 50 pages, with footnotes. Papers must be in proper Bluebook form. Papers which have been submitted to other writing competitions are eligible.

3.) Eligible papers may address any antitrust topic including topics relating to civil and criminal antitrust law, intellectual property and antitrust law, competition policy, regulatory policy, consumer protection, international competition law and state antitrust enforcement.

4.) Jointly prepared papers are not eligible.

5.) Go to the Antitrust Section on the NYSBA website and click on the "Young Lawyers and Law Students" section and download an Entry Form. Submit the paper electronically in PDF format, along with a completed Entry Form, by April 30, 2013 to:

Professor Edward D. Cavanagh
St. John's University School of Law
8000 Utopia Parkway
Queens, NY 11439
cavanage@stjohns.edu

Winners and Awards:

The winner will be announced in July 2013 and will receive a check for $5,000 and may receive an offer of publication on the New York State Bar Antitrust Section website.

If you have questions, contact Prof. Edward D. Cavanagh at 718 990-6621 or at cavanage@stjohns.edu

Log on at www.nysba.org/antitrust

Go to 'Student Writing Competition'