

Margaret C. Callanan, Esq,
Principal Counsel
Attorney Grievance Committee
Eighth Judicial District

Margaret C. Callanan has been counsel to the Grievance Committee since 1992, and is currently a Principal Counsel, where she has been responsible for the investigation of complaints against attorneys alleging professional misconduct, and the presentation of numerous major investigations to the Grievance Committee and to the Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court, Fourth Judicial Department, including the trials of serious cases before Referees. Prior to 1992, Ms. Callanan was an associate with Harter, Secrest & Emery in Rochester, and a Confidential Law Assistant to the Appellate Division, Fourth Department in Rochester. She received her B.A. degree from the University of Rochester, and her J.D. from the SUNY Buffalo School of Law, where she was a member of The Buffalo Law Review. She is a member of the New York State Bar Association, the Bar Association of Erie County, the New York State Association of Disciplinary Attorneys, and the National Organization of Bar Counsel, and is a frequent lecturer on ethics and attorney discipline topics.