

Jason Michael Carusone, Esq.
District Attorney
Warren County District Attorneys Office
1340 State Route 9
Lake George, NY 12845-3434

Jason Carusone is the Warren County District Attorney. He is a native of Warren County and a graduate from the University at Buffalo School of Law. Jason began his career in criminal justice as a general practitioner with a focus on criminal defense. After working in private practice, he became an Assistant District Attorney for Warren County. Jason has served as a full-time Prosecutor at the Warren County District Attorney's Office for nearly 20 years.

In June of 2017, after twelve years as the First Assistant, Jason became the Acting District Attorney. He was elected District Attorney and began his first term in 2018. Throughout his tenure as a prosecutor, Jason has handled hundreds of Grand Jury presentations, participated in numerous trials and argued appeals before the New York Court of Appeals and the Appellate Division, Third Department. He has successfully prosecuted multiple homicide cases, as well as cases involving sexual abuse, violent crimes, narcotics cases, and other felony offenses.

Jason has been a supporter of the Warren County Drug Treatment Court program and the Opioid Diversion program since their inception. These programs help individuals who commit non-violent crimes due to drug and alcohol use. As District Attorney, Jason has expanded victim advocacy through grant funding of the Office of Victim Services. In addition to victim outreach, his office works directly with the CARE center to reduce trauma for child victims and participates in a local domestic violence court to hold offenders accountable and to protect victims' rights.

For his efforts and service, Jason was recognized by the International Narcotic Enforcement Officers Association and received the Special Award of Honor. In 2014, the District Attorneys Association of New York selected him as the Robert M. Morgenthau Award recipient for his professional accomplishments, integrity and his commitment to the fair and equitable administration of justice.

Jason resides in Queensbury with his wife, Natalia, and their two children.
