

Save the Date!

Oct. 15-16, 2009

33rd Annual Civics & Law-Related Education Conference
Fort William Henry Conference Center ~ Lake George, NY

Theme: Economy, Ecology, Equality; Dealing with the New World Order

A series of seminars and workshops addressing environmental issues, financial literacy, the economy and issues of equality. Topics include global warming, today's economy, historic economic events, civic engagement, immigration, and participatory government.

- Lake George boat cruise
- $90 registration fee includes meals, materials, all five sessions, boat cruise
- Leading scholars and attorneys as presenters
- Beautiful surroundings, great meals
- Register now at lycny.org

Sponsored by the Law, Youth and Citizenship Program of the New York State Bar Association

KEYNOTE SPEAKER ~ Joy Rodino:

Why is the Preamble to the Constitution relevant today?

The author of "Fifty-Two Words My Husband Taught Me," attorney Joy Rodino, will offer insights through the eyes of her late husband, Congressman Peter Rodino, a 40-year legislator and defender of the Constitution who believed the Preamble is our country's soul, "not only projecting a vision of who we are as a people, but also expressing the limitless possibilities of all we can be."

All attendees will receive a copy of the book as part of their registration, and an autograph opportunity during the conference.