

“Pro Bono in Your PJs”

NY.freelegalanswers.org is a website where members of the public can go to post basic legal questions that attorneys can answer for free. This online pro bono legal service is available for use by any New Yorker who qualifies, based on income, and any attorney in good standing in the state of New York who chooses to participate.

NY.freelegalanswers.org allows you to do pro bono work from any location for any length of time. You can even do pro bono in your PJs.

Participation in this project will be covered by malpractice insurance provided by the American Bar Association, and will be monitored by NYSBA staff members in the Pro Bono Service Department.

If you are interested in learning more about this project and the possibility of being on a test panel of volunteer attorneys upon the website's launch this summer, please fill out the information below and return it to Kristen Wagner, Director of Pro Bono Services at the New York State Bar Association at kwagner@nysba.org.
