Phil is a law clerk in the firm's White Plains office. He is currently pending admission to the New York State bar. Prior to joining the firm, Phil gained litigation and dispute resolution experience at two separate intellectual property law firms. There he primarily focused on trademark and trade secret litigation cases. This included providing support for Trademark Trial and Appeal Board ("TTAB") opposition and cancellation proceedings, as well as Uniform Domain-Name Dispute Resolution Policy ("UDRP") matters.

Phil gained valuable courtroom perspective and motion experience while interning for the Hon. Charles A. Apotheker, New York State Supreme Court, 9th Judicial District. He was also an intern with the Rockland County District Attorney's office where he assisted with case preparation, courtroom proceedings and pretrial conferences.

During law school, Phil was the Director of External Competitions and Treasurer of the Dispute Resolution Society. Additionally, he served as senior staff member of the New York Real Property Law Journal, as well as the Director of Special Events for the Public Interest Center.

Prior to attending law school, Phil worked at a real estate law firm where he gained experience with residential and commercial real estate transactions.
