

Andrew Guglielmi, Esq.
NYSDEC
625 Broadway
Albany, New York 12233
andrew.guglielmi@dec.ny.gov
(518) 402-8013

Andrew O. Guglielmi is an Associate Attorney in the Office of General Counsel (OGC) of the N.Y.S. Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC). He is currently a Section Chief in OGC's Bureau of Remediation. Mr. Guglielmi supervises a team of attorneys, an economist, an environmental program specialist, and a legal assistant, which is responsible for providing legal assistance to the DEC's remedial programs, including the Brownfield Cleanup Program (BCP), the State Superfund Program, the Environmental Restoration Program, and the RCRA Corrective Action Program. Mr. Guglielmi is also responsible for pursuing cost recovery actions and actions related to Natural Resource Damages (NRD) matters for DEC. Mr. Guglielmi received JD, magna cum laude, with a concentration in environmental law, from the State University of New York at Buffalo Law School in 2006. Mr. Guglielmi has been with the DEC since December of 2007.