A skilled litigator and trial attorney, Ben has built his reputation through the successful representation of a wide array of individuals and entities in a variety of complex personal injury, criminal defense, and federal cases, including trying numerous cases to verdict in state and federal courts.

Benjamin W. Hill is a personal injury and criminal defense attorney. He is the founder of the Law Office of Benjamin W. Hill, PLLC, and was previously a partner at one of the region's top litigation and white-collar criminal defense firms. Ben has been repeatedly recognized as one of the area's "Rising Stars" and has been involved in some of the area's most high-profile cases.

Ben graduated summa cum laude with University Honors from Ohio Wesleyan University in 2003 with a triple-major in International Studies, History, and Spanish. He obtained a law degree from the Ohio State University Moritz College of Law, cum laude, in 2006, which included a year abroad in Tegucigalpa, Honduras as a Fulbright Scholar. Ben served as a law clerk for the Honorable Randolph F. Treece, a federal judge in the Northern District of New York before beginning his career as a trial attorney.

Ben has recovered millions of dollars in verdicts and settlements for clients in wrongful death, product liability, construction/industrial accident, car/truck accident, nursing home abuse/medical malpractice, civil rights, sexual abuse, and other cases. He is fluent in Spanish and has represented Spanish-speaking clients throughout the Capital District in personal injury and wrongful death cases.

Ben also defends individuals and corporations charged with serious crimes in both the state and federal courts, with significant experience in white-collar criminal investigations and proceedings, including government and regulatory investigations, internal investigations and contested administrative/regulatory proceedings. Examples include honest services fraud, wire/mail fraud, Hobbs Act/extortion, Medicaid/Medicare fraud and False Claims Act, Civil RICO, tampering/obstruction of justice, and other federal and state criminal matters including drug conspiracy and firearm cases.
