Camille M. Ng is Deputy Counsel at the New York office of the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce ("ICC").

Prior to joining the ICC, she was Assistant Legal Counsel at the Permanent Court of Arbitration (The Hague, the Netherlands), where she assisted arbitral tribunals in inter-State and investor-State arbitrations. She previously worked with Mr. Michael Hwang S.C. (Singapore) and served as tribunal secretary for both institutional and ad hoc international commercial arbitrations. She started her legal career as a litigation associate at the Chicago office of Kirkland & Ellis LLP.

Camille has a J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Notre Dame Law School, where she served as the Note Editor of the Notre Dame Journal of Law, Ethics and Public Policy and worked at the Notre Dame Legal Aid Clinic; an LL.M. in International and Comparative Law from the National University of Singapore, where she served as an Associate Editor for the Asian Journal of International Law; and an LL.M. in Global Business Law from New York University. She is admitted to the Illinois bar.
