

2015 ANTITRUST SECTION Law Student Fellowship

The New York Bar Foundation is pleased to announce the 2015 Antitrust Section Law Student Fellowship, established by the Foundation through gifts from the Antitrust Section of the New York State Bar Association. The Fellowship, currently valued at $6,000, will be awarded to one or more students to spend the summer of 2015 (10 weeks) working on antitrust matters in one of the following agencies: the New York Office of New York Attorney General, Antitrust Bureau; Federal Trade Commission, Northeast Region; or Department of Justice Antitrust Division, New York Field Office. Fellows will also be guest members of the NYSBA Antitrust Section for two years starting with the award of the Fellowship.

Apply today for Summer 2015!

Applications are available now at www.nysba.org/ANTI Click on "Awards"

In addition to providing law students an opportunity to experience antitrust practice during the summer after their first or second year of law school, the ultimate goal of the Fellowship is to forge relationships among antitrust practitioners throughout the State of New York and foster greater diversity in the antitrust bar.

Selection criteria include: content and quality of application materials; demonstrated interest in antitrust and/or consumer protection; New York permanent residence or a demonstrated intent to reside and practice law in New York following graduation from law school; diverse background; work experience; academic record; leadership; extracurricular activities and community service; maturity, integrity and professionalism.

Questions? Contact Deborah Auspelmyer at the New York Bar Foundation, DAUSPELMYER@tnybf.org.

