Antitrust Law Students:

Submit now to the NYSBA Section of Antitrust Law

Annual Law Student Writing Competition

2016-2017

$5,000 cash prize for the winning paper

How to Enter:

1.) Eligible papers must be written by a currently-enrolled or graduating student at a New York State Law School or by a New York State resident at any ABA-accredited law school outside of New York State.

2.) Eligible papers include notes, comments and articles and should generally be 20-30 pages in length, with footnotes. In no event may papers exceed 50 pages, with footnotes.

3.) Eligible papers may address any topic of general interest to the to antitrust law community, including topics relating to civil and criminal antitrust law, competition policy, consumer protection and international competition law.

4.) Jointly prepared papers are not eligible.

5.) Go to the Antitrust Section on the NYSBA website and click on the "Young Lawyers and Law Students" section and download an Entry Form. Submit an electronic copy of the paper, along with a completed Entry Form, by April 30, 2017 to:

Professor Edward D. Cavanagh
St. John's University School of Law
8000 Utopia Parkway
Queens, NY 11439
cavanage@stjohns.edu

Winners and Awards:

The winner will be announced in July 2017. The first place winner will receive a check for $5,000.

If you have questions, contact Prof. Edward D. Cavanagh at 718 990-6621 or at cavanage@stjohns.edu.

Log on at www.nysba.org/antitrust

Go to 'Student Writing Competition'