AN OVERVIEW OF THE COURSE:

This three-day course will present a thorough examination of mediation principles and techniques. The program faculty will analyze the structure of a typical mediation, highlight ethical issues that may arise in mediation, and explore solutions for generating movement and overcoming impasse.

The program faculty will explore the differences between facilitative and evaluative or directive approaches in mediation, both from a practical and from an ethical perspective, and will discuss the advantages and disadvantages of these styles. The instructors will focus on experiential learning through role plays and dialogue to help prepare you for the real world of commercial mediation.

Topics & Skills:

- Cultivating ideal Mediator orientation, attitude & awareness
- Effective Preparation
- Effective Communication
- Deep Listening Skills
- Effective Openings
- Maximizing Opportunities in Joint Session
- Wise Caucusing
- Power Risk Analysis – art, timing & tact in engaging in evaluative processes
- Impasse Breaking
- Coming to Closure
- Theoretical tools to Grasp the underlying Negotiation
- Mediation Ethics

Registration fee includes continental breakfast, lunch, coffee breaks, and program materials.

$795 for Dispute Resolution Section members or Fordham Law alumni

$845 for NYSBA members

$945 for Non-NYSBA members

For over 20 years, the program faculty has presented the same training to mediators for the Commercial Division of the New York State Supreme Court fulfilling three days of Commercial Mediation Training approved under Part 146 of the Rules of the Chief Administrative Judge.

The trainers have received high accolades for their work.

“Thanks to you, we are confident that these new mediators bring to their role a strong grasp of mediation techniques and genuine understanding of the diverse issues they may confront. They can achieve the best results for the parties if they have a solid foundation in mediation, and that you have provided them.”

Hon. Jacqueline W. Silbermann, as Administrative Judge, 1st Judicial District

“[Y]our work on this project was magnificent.”

Hon. Stephen G. Crane, as Administrative Judge, 1st Judicial District
PROGRAM DIRECTORS AND PRESENTERS:

SIMEON H. BAUM, ESQ.
Mr. Baum is a 30+ year litigator and President of Resolve Mediation Services, Inc. (www.mediators.com); serving as mediator, arbitrator and evaluator in over 1,000 disputes since 1992. His mediations include the highly publicized Studio Daniel Libeskind-Silverstein Properties dispute over architectural fees for redevelopment of the World Trade Center site, and Trump’s $1 billion suit over the West Side Hudson River development. He served as founding Chair of NYSBA’s Dispute Resolution Section. He was Chair of the Federal Bar Association’s ADR Section, past President of the FBA’s SDNY Chapter, and on the FBA’s national Board of Directors. He has served on ADR Advisory Groups to the New York Court system and trained their Commercial Division mediators for the last 20 years. In 2011, 2014, and 2018, Best Lawyers selected Mr. Baum as New York’s ADR “Lawyer of the Year.” He teaches on the ADR faculty at Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law and is a frequent speaker and trainer on ADR.

STEPHEN A. HOCHMAN, ESQ.
Mr. Hochman practiced law for over 40 years, specializing in corporate, commercial and securities law. He has mediated over 350 commercial and other types of disputes, including class actions and financial, employment, insurance, real estate, partnership and bankruptcy disputes, approximately 98% of which have settled. Mr. Hochman now practices exclusively as a mediator and arbitrator and writes, consults and lectures frequently on ADR subjects. For over a decade Mr. Hochman has trained the mediators in New York County and various other downstate counties. He also served on the investment committees and boards of various non-profit corporations, including several hospitals and a captive insurance company.

The flourishing field of Dispute Resolution continues to grow and expand across all areas of legal practice through the various processes of mediation, arbitration, neutral evaluation, negotiation, collaborative law, group facilitation, etc.

The Dispute Resolution Section:

- Acts as a forum to address key issues and analyze and promote legislation in areas of concern to practitioners and users of varying dispute resolution processes;
- Provides neutrals and advocates continuing legal education and training to better appreciate, develop and refine skills in these processes;
- Offers an opportunity to consider and comment on ethical issues affecting practice;
- Affords a venue for practitioners, law school faculty and students, and dispute resolution providers to network and exchange ideas;
- Sharpens the skills of recently-trained mediators through our Mentoring program; and
- Furnishes access and information about dispute resolution to other members of the Bar and the public.

Rewarding Opportunities

NYSBA’s Dispute Resolution Section offers members many excellent opportunities to enhance their knowledge and expertise and to become active participants in shaping the future of the Section and this expanding field. Events featuring outstanding speakers and leaders in the field inform members in examining and evaluating critical developments. Actively meeting and working with colleagues in the field provides members with a forum to input and refine their ideas and thoughts about the complex issues affecting practitioners. The Dispute Resolution Section addresses such issues and communicates about them with the profession as a whole.

Participation Made Easy

There are a variety of ways for Section members to participate as actively as they choose. Members may join and work on a committee to shape the future of the field, may read and contribute to our publication the New York Dispute Resolution Lawyer or our newsletter, and may attend our CLE workshops and hear speakers at our various committee meetings. The Section’s Executive Committee encourages Section members to participate in all its activities and welcomes attendance at its meetings.

Become a Voice for the Association

The Dispute Resolution Section addresses the major professional issues that affect practitioners, formulates positions and advocates where appropriate, including within the New York State Bar Association. Membership in the New York State Bar Association’s Dispute Resolution Section is a valuable way for you to keep up-to-date on the developing issues and concerns that face the ever-changing legal profession. We welcome and encourage your participation and input. Online Resources such as Lois Law case alerts (a NYSBA membership benefit), a listing of relevant links, access to Section news and events, a searchable member database, current publications and articles of interest to the field are available at the Dispute Resolution Section area of the NYSBA website, www.nysba.org/drs.

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW ADR & CONFLICT RESOLUTION PROGRAM

Fordham’s Conflict Resolution & ADR Program offers a curriculum that balances theory and casework with real-world practice, reflecting the breadth and span of alternative dispute resolution practice within the legal and business communities. The Program provides students with unique opportunities to study the field of ADR through the renowned clinics and courses offered in negotiation, mediation, arbitration and international conflict resolution taught by leading academics in the field and experienced ADR practitioners. It also sponsors annual symposia on critical issues in domestic and international dispute resolution. Finally, the Program provides students with the opportunity to engage in public service through teaching mediation skills in the community.
