

The General Practice Section Is Your NYSBA Connection – Just $25 Per Year!

Get more out of your New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) membership by tapping into the resources, events and opportunities that only the General Practice Section offers. Great for general practice or solo and small firm attorneys.

Information You Need

Section publications keep you informed and up to date on the news you need:

- The General Practice Section newsletter, One on One, highlights key subjects such as estates and trusts, family law, criminal law, real property, business law and more.
- Timely posts on the General Practice Section blog
- Weekly wEbrieF emails

Networking Opportunities

Connect with people you can learn from and who can help you build your practice and career. Interact with influential colleagues at Section programs and special events, or participate from your home or office through a variety of online resources. Plus attend the special Section program at NYSBA's Annual Meeting — a convenient, high-profile way to help you fulfill your MCLE requirements.

Support for You and Your Practice

The Section works with NYSBA's Law Practice Management Committee and CLE department to help Section members acquire the skills and competencies needed to integrate emerging technologies effectively into every practice setting.

The Section's website — www.nysba.org/GP — offers links and resources including online access to publications, the General Practice Section blog, committee rosters, and upcoming events.

Get Involved In Shaping Your Future

Whether it's exchanging information with a colleague in the Section's active online Community, contributing an article for a newsletter, or lecturing in your area of expertise, you'll have an opportunity to make a positive impact on the law and the profession.

NYSBA's Online Communities

Have a pressing question about your practice area? Need an important form? Our online Section communities help you gain a competitive edge through immediate advice and tips from your fellow members. Communities are creative, collaborative and customizable. You determine how you receive info, via email, online or through our convenient app.
