Sustaining NY's Farms: Legal Solutions for Farm Business Futures

WHEN: WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 2018

TIME: 9:00AM – 3:30PM

WHERE: thINCubator, 326 BROAD ST. UTICA, NY

Farm businesses are fundamental to New York State's economy and the agricultural food and product diversity that the state is renowned for. Yet many of these businesses are struggling to survive into the next generation. This Continuing Legal Education (CLE) program is designed to provide attendees with an in-depth understanding of the diverse legal solutions available to farm businesses planning for sustainable futures.

The program will offer sessions on:

- Bankruptcy and debt-relief instruments
- Conservation easements and other farmland preservation tools
- Choice of Entity/Business Structure Selection
- Trust and Estate instruments helpful to the family farm

While this CLE is designed for attorneys looking to gain the interdisciplinary competency required for farm business counseling, the program is open to the general public as well. Farm business owners and their families, community stakeholders, and invested citizens are welcome to join and learn from our experienced attorney educators.

CREDITS: 4.5 credits,
