

Health Law Section

Sponsorship Opportunities

2016–2017

Why Sponsor?

- Gain recognition at the premier events of the Health Law Section of the New York State Bar Association, held in Albany and NYSBA's high-profile Annual Meeting
- Reach a targeted audience of attorneys representing a broad spectrum of practice in the health law field
- Position your organization as a supporter of the health law legal community

What Sponsors Receive at the Fall Meeting and/or the Annual Meeting program (Does not Apply to Exhibitors):

- Organization name/logo on sponsor sign at the event
- Table space for promotional materials and display items at the Fall Meeting*
- Listing in event materials (if sponsorship is confirmed and logo received by deadline)
- Acknowledgment on the Health Law Section's website, and during opening remarks at the program
- Opportunity to network with meeting attendees. See back cover for more information about the section.

Amount of display space is dependent on the number of sponsors. If space is limited, display space is shared.*

About the NYSBA and the Health Law Section:

For more than 135 years, the New York State Bar Association has shaped the development of the law, educated and informed the profession and the public, and responded to the demands of a changing society. With more than 74,000 members representing every town, city and county in the state, NYSBA is the largest voluntary state bar organization in the nation.

The Health Law Section has more than 1,200 members, and provides health law attorneys opportunities to advance their professional education, exchange information and perspectives on changes in the law, and network with colleagues from around the state to advance their careers. The Section's diverse membership includes attorneys who represent all types of health care providers, such as health care systems, in-house counsel, insurance/payor plans and governmental attorneys involved in health care regulation.

Contact: For questions about sponsorships or to confirm availability, contact Amy Jasiewicz at: ajasiewicz@nysba.org, or call (518) 487-5682. Visit the Section online at: www.nysba.org/health
