

NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
REAL PROPERTY SECTION

LANDLORD-TENANT PROCEEDINGS COMMITTEE

MISSION STATEMENT

General Mission:

The general mission of the Committee is:

1. to educate the Bar regarding current and prospective developments that affect landlord/tenant proceedings.
2. to monitor and recommend changes in law and regulations.
3. to communicate the activities and viewpoints of the Committee to the Section and the Bar Association and vice versa.
4. to educate the public.

Membership:

All members of the Real Property Law Section are welcome to join the Committee.

Organization and Meetings:

The Committee has two Co-Chairs.

The Committee meets annually at the time of the Section's annual meeting. The Committee may meet at other times as circumstances warrant, upon notice from the Co-Chairs. Meetings typically consist of: (1) reports on current legislative; case law and other developments; (2) discussion of topics of general interest; and (3) panel discussions and speakers of interest.
