CAPS Blog

The NYSBA's Committee on Attorneys in Public Service hosts a blog (called the "CAPS Blog"), for attorneys practicing law in the public sector context. The CAPS Blog highlights recent cases, legal trends and commentary from around New York State, and beyond, addressing legal issues ranging from government practice and public service law, social justice, professional competence and civility in the legal profession generally. To view the CAPS Blog, go to <http://nysbar.com/blogs/CAPS>. You can also bookmark the site, or subscribe to the RSS feed to easily monitor the blog for regular updates.

PLEASE NOTE: Seating for these programs is limited, so please be sure to register early to reserve your space. To register online, go to www.nysba.org/am2014. You will need your NYSBA user name and password to register. If you need this information, please call 518-463-3200 / 800-582-2452.

These programs are basic level seminars applicable for new attorneys and for experienced practitioners interested in learning more about these topics. Under New York's MCLE rule, this program has been approved for 2 credit hours in the area of professional practice. New attorneys admitted within the past 24 months may attend for MCLE credits.

Discounts and Scholarships: New York State Bar Association members and non-members may apply for a discount or scholarship to attend this program based on financial hardship. Under that policy, any member of our Association or non-member who has a genuine basis of his/her hardship, and if approved, can receive a discount or scholarship, depending on the circumstances. To apply for a discount or scholarship, please send your request in writing to New York State Bar Association, Membership Services, One Elk Street, Albany, New York 12207, by e-mail to: caps@nysba.org, or via fax to 518-487-5579.

Accommodations for Persons with Disabilities: NYSBA welcomes participation by individuals with disabilities. NYSBA is committed to complying with all applicable laws that prohibit discrimination against individuals on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of its goods, services, programs, activities, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations. To request auxiliary aids or services or if you have any questions regarding accessibility, please contact Membership Services at 518-487-5571.

For overnight room accommodations, please call the Hilton New York at 1-800-445-8667 and identify yourself as a member of the New York State Bar Association.

For questions about this specific program, please contact Membership Services at 518-487-5578. For registration questions, please call 518-487-5621. To register online, go to www.nysba.org/am2014.

Are YOU on the Mailing List??

The Committee on Attorneys in Public Service publishes a 2 X/year publication especially for NYSBA members in government and public interest law offices. The Government Law and Policy Journal is produced in collaboration with Albany Law School's Government Law Center, and focuses on cutting-edge public policy issues. It is a free benefit of NYSBA membership, but you must ask to be added to the mailing list. Please send your requests to be added to the GLP Journal mailing list to: membership@nysba.org or call 518-487-5571.
