

SOME PEOPLE KNOW HOW TO PUT IN A GOOD DAY'S WORK.

Even with their busy schedules, many attorneys still find time to volunteer their legal services to help the poor. Some provide extraordinary pro bono service. On May 3, at its 1994 President's Pro Bono Service Awards ceremony, the New York State Bar Association recognized those attorneys, law firms, and law students throughout New York State who provided free civil legal services to the poor in their communities. Please join us in thanking these award winners for all their good work.

1994 President's Pro Bono Service Award Winners

Attorney Award Winners

Eileen Buholtz, Rochester
Lisa E. Cleary, New York
Franklyn J. Engel, Woodstock
Fauzia S. Khan, Williamsville
Andrew G. Lipkin, New York
Ann Manion, Utica
Thomas Maroun, Cazenovia

Arthur Mendelson, Brooklyn
Edward Z. Menkin, Syracuse
John P. Reali, Sea Cliff
Martin B. Schaffer, Middletown
Linda A. Tullock, Schenectady
Weil, Gotshal & Manges, New York
Law Firm Award
Shearman & Sterling, New York

Individual Law Student Award
Nelson Vargas, State University of New York at Buffalo Law School
Law Student Group Award
Battered Women's Project
Brooklyn Law School

To find out more about your local pro bono project, call the New York State Bar Association at 518-487-5641.