Re: Revisions to YLS Bylaws

This memo references the changes made to the Young Lawyers Section bylaws voted upon and approved by two votes of the YLS Executive Committee, the last being done August 1, 2012.

Effective Changes:

Revision of language to reflect those committees and positions currently being utilized by the section and removing those that were out of date.

A full reimbursement section was added.

Addition of language allowing for the removal and replacement of non-participating officers, liaisons, and section representatives.

Addition of a section for nomination and election for the Member-At-Large to NYSBA's Executive Committee as well as Young Lawyer Delegate to the ABA House of Delegates.

Revision of quorum requirement for the Section.

Inclusion of a paragraph for circulation and usage of the bylaws.
