

Jennifer Monthie, Esq.

Disability Rights New York

Director

PADD, PAAT, PATBI Programs

725 Broadway, Suite 450

Albany, New York 12207

(518) 432-7861

(518) 410-0535 (Cell)

Jennifer.Monthie@disabilityrightsny.org

Jennifer Monthie is the Statewide Director of the Protection and Advocacy (P&A) for Individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (PADD), P&A for Assistive Technology (PAAT), and P&A for Individuals with Traumatic Brain Injury (PATBI) programs at Disability Rights New York.

Prior to her appointment to Director, Jennifer served as staff attorney and senior staff attorney of the PADD program at Disability Advocates, Inc. Jennifer practices in the areas of education, community integration, and civil rights of individuals with disabilities.

She is a founding member of the New York State Special Education Task Force which fosters collaboration between schools, parents and advocates on Special Education. Jennifer is a frequent lecturer to attorneys and other professionals on issues affecting individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.