Patricia J. Shevy is the founder of The Shevy Law Firm, LLC, of Albany, New York.

Tricia focuses her practice exclusively in the areas of estate planning and administration, elder law and business succession planning. Tricia also maintains a satellite office in Schoharie, New York.

Tricia believes in the teamwork approach and regularly works with her clients and their investment advisors, bankers, insurance agents and accountants to ensure that the plan meets the client's long term objectives.

Tricia is an active member of the New York State Bar Association- Trusts and Estates Section (Life Insurance and Employee Benefits Committee) and Elder Law Section (District Delegate and a member of the Medicaid Committee). She is also a member of the Albany County Bar Association (Continuing Legal Education Committee), National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and Schoharie County Chamber of Commerce.

Tricia's past public service includes serving on the Boards of Directors of Childs Nursing Home, Albany County Correctional Facility for Children's Benefit and the Watervliet City School District Board of Education, serving as president for 3 years. Currently, Tricia is on the board of directors of The Bus Stop Club, Inc., a support program for the siblings of chronically ill children, and Rensselaer County Housing Resources Corporation, an affordable housing program offering free mini-home repair services to the elderly and disabled in Rensselaer County, serving as its president.

Tricia earned a Bachelor of Science in Management-Finance from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 3 years. Following graduation from RPI in 1994, Tricia received her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Albany Law School of Union University in 1997, where she was a member of the Justinian Society.

Tricia routinely lectures to small groups regarding estate tax planning, long term care planning, estate planning issues when disabled children are involved as well as the unique issues of estate planning for non-traditional families and small business owners. Tricia also lectures and writes for continuing legal education programs offered by the New York State Bar Association and other providers of continuing legal education programs as well as Albany Law School's annual Senior Citizens Law Day.
