SLEEPY HOLLOW - THE ULTIMATE OCTOBER DESTINATION!

Optional Tour and Performance

Thousands descend on the town every year for its October festivities. Few cities evoke Halloween's horrifying images as does the setting of Washington Irving's immortal work, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow." Join us for a WALKING TOUR OF SLEEPY HOLLOW CEMETERY followed by a performance of IRVING'S "LEGEND", by master storyteller Jonathan Kruk, in the story's original setting, the Old Dutch Church. We will creep through the winding roads and soaring monuments of the Cemetery. Trace the footsteps of Irving's most famous character - Ichabod Crane, in "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" - as we visit the author's final resting place on our one-hour trek. Hear about Irving's life and his tremendous influence on the area. Learn about cemetery symbolism; see some of the beautiful art and architecture of this historic 166-year old place. A visit to the Receiving Vault (the crypt of Barnabas Collins in Dark Shadows) provides just the right amount of spooky to get into the Halloween spirit! From the Cemetery, we visit the church to hear Irving's Legend, the dramatic telling of his 1820 folktale, featuring the Headless Horseman, Ichabod Crane, Brom Bones, and Katrina Van Tassel. "Haunting" organ music is woven throughout the spellbinding show. Shuttle departs hotel at 4:45 p.m.

Preregistration required on Meeting Registration form. Limited Tickets Available. $40 Fee. Immediately following the tour & performance, attendees will be dropped at Tappan Hill for reception and dinner.

7:30 - 10:30 p.m.

Cocktail Reception & Dinner at Tappan Hill Mansion, 81 Highland Ave, Tarrytown

Tappan Hill Mansion is located on the former estate of Mark Twain in the scenic Hudson Valley. Nestled on a hilltop overlooking the Hudson, this stunning stone structure features luxurious rooms and a garden terrace.

Shuttle will depart from the hotel at 7:15 pm. For those who prefer to drive, directions will be provided.

THINGS TO DO

Lyndhurst

Lyndhurst, one of America's finest Gothic Revival mansions, designed in 1838 by Andrew Jackson Davis sits in a glorious park-like setting overlooking the Hudson River. Owned by railroad magnate Jay Gould after 1880, the mansion is fully furnished and contains collections of 19th and 20th century decorative arts. www.lyndhurst.org

635 South Broadway (Route 9), Tarrytown 10591 | 914-631-4481 | www.lyndhurst.org

Kykuit

Kykuit - the Rockefeller Estate. Landmark home to four generations of the Rockefeller family. Tours of the main rooms of the stone house, terraced gardens with a collection of 20th century sculpture; art galleries with works of Picasso, Moore, Calder, Nevelson and Smith; and Coach Barn.

381 North Broadway, Sleepy Hollow 10591 | 914-631-9491 | www.hudsonvalley.org

Philipsburg Manor

Late 17th-early 18th century milling, farming and trading complex was part of the Philips estate, tenanted European farmers, operated by enslaved Africans. Costumed interpreters lead tours of the manor house, grist mill, barn, slave garden and farmhouse. Museum shop, picnic area, and café. During October, Horseman's Hollow takes the tale of The Legend of Sleepy Hollow to its darkest extremes, returning the Manor for 15 evenings of highly entertaining haunted mayhem. Philipsburg Manor transforms into a terrifying landscape ruled by the undead, the evil, and the insane. Visitors begin walking a haunted trail, stumbling upon scary scenes of a town driven mad by the Headless Horseman. Elaborate costumes and the work of award-winning feature-film makeup artists make it all too real. Appropriate for ages 10+. Nights of Oct. 2-3: First entry at 7 pm, last entry at 10:00 pm. Advance Tickets Required.

Route 9, Tarrytown 10591 | 914-631-3992 | www.hudsonvalley.org

Washington Irving's Sunnyside

Hear about Washington Irving's storied past and how he came to be America's first internationally famous author, best remembered now for The Legend of Sleepy Hollow and other short stories. During October, a daytime visit here is the perfect prelude to an evening at Blaze, Horseman's Hollow, or Irving's 'Legend.' Irving's fascinating home – a colorful blend of architectural styles – will showcase numerous objects related to Irving's famous story. Visitors can enjoy a shadow puppet performance of The Legend of Sleepy Hollow and experience one of Irving's spooky tales on a walk through the woods. Recommended for all ages. Oct. 3 - 4. Advance Tickets Required.

West Sunnyside Lane, off Route 9, Tarrytown. Call 914-631-8200 or 914-591-8763 for information.

The Great Jack O'Lantern Blaze

See more than 7,000 individually hand-carved, illuminated jack o' lanterns in this elaborate walk through experience. Meander through an historic, 18th-century riverside landscape and discover a breathtaking display -- all made of jack o' lanterns! Tens of thousands of visitors experienced last year's Blaze®, which was sold out EVERY NIGHT! Complete with sound effects, elaborate synchronized lighting and an all-original soundtrack by recording artist Richard Christy, this not-to-be-missed spectacle is the area's most innovative Halloween happening. Oct. 2 - 4; Advance Tickets Required. Purchase online starting Sept. 1 at www.hudsonvalley.org/events/blaze/faqs
