Mark Berman is a partner in Ganfer & Shore's litigation practice groups as well as in the firm's Cooperative and Condominium Housing Practice Group. He also heads the firm's E-Discovery Counseling practice.

He has extensive experience in representing private and public companies, as well as partnerships and individuals, as plaintiffs and defendants, in complex commercial matters with an emphasis on real estate and securities disputes, electronic discovery conflicts, and complex title insurance issues.

Mr. Berman is experienced in all phases of litigation in both state and federal courts as well as in arbitrations and mediations. He is a seasoned appellate attorney, having argued many cases before both the First and Second Departments. Mr. Berman is also a trained mediator.

Prior to joining Ganfer & Shore, he was an associate in the litigation department at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and clerked for United States Magistrate Judge Michael L. Orenstein for the Eastern District of New York.

Mr. Berman has been elected Chair of the Commercial and Federal Litigation Section of the New York State Bar Association for 2016-2017.

Mr. Berman has written and lectured extensively on electronic discovery and social media issues before the American Bar Association, the New York State Bar Association and the New York State Judicial Institute. He has been appointed by the Chief Administrative Judge as a member of New York State E-Discovery Working Group advising the New York State Unified Court System.

Mr. Berman was featured in a two-page interview by The New York Law Journal on November 15, 2013 relating to his role as co-chair of the Social Media Committee of the Commercial and Litigation Section of the New York State Bar Association.

Since 2005, Mr. Berman has authored a column in The New York Law Journal addressing electronic discovery under New York State law. Mr. Berman's articles have been quoted in both appellate and trial court decisions. All of his articles may be found in the Media section of Ganfer & Shore's website.

Mr. Berman is rated "AV" by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest level in professional excellence and ethics, and has been selected as a "New York Super Lawyer" annually since 2008.
