VISITING NEW ORLEANS

BRENNAN'S RESTAURANT IN THE FRENCH QUARTER

Getting Around New Orleans:

Hotel: The JW Marriott, 614 Canal Street; 504-525-6500

Louis Armstrong International Airport Shuttle:

To schedule a shuttle, go to a kiosk on the first level throughout the baggage claim area. An attendant will assist with arranging your shuttle pick-up and will direct you to the proper shuttle stop. This is the cheapest way for a solo traveler (not using public transportation) to get from the airport to the French Quarter. Since the Airport Shuttle rates are $24 per person ($44 round trip), the price becomes more expensive with more people; children under 6 ride free. Visit www.airportshuttleneworleans.com for more info.

Taxi: Quickest, easiest way for couples to get from airport. Fixed, flat rate is $36 for 1 or 2 people; $15 per person for 3 or more. Traveling by taxi in the City, is also an option. Cabs must be called; you cannot hail cabs in New Orleans. Call United Cabs, 504-522-9771 or Nawlins Cab, 504-522-9059 or use their app.

Car Rental: You will find many Rental Agencies at the Airport. Valet Parking at the hotel is $45 per day. Street parking in the city is hard to find.

UBER: Often comparably priced to taxis and perhaps somewhat more reliable (plus easier to use, given the convenience of the app). If you use the app on your phone in your home city, it works the same here. If you don't, consider downloading it in advance of your trip. Uber surge pricing is always in effect from the airport, so cabs tend to be the less expensive option traveling to/from airport.

RTA Street Cars: 4 lines: St. Charles, Canal Street, Riverfront, and Loyola Avenue. Don't forget to have exact change for fare (under $2). Or purchase a Jazzy Pass and ride the streetcar as much as you desire. Passes are available online at www.norta.com/Fares-Passes/Jazzy-Pass.aspx (mail or digital via app), from conductors or at Walgreens and select grocery stores.

Insider Tip: St. Charles Avenue line operates around the clock, but much fewer late at night and in the early morning. After dark, calling a cab or Uber is your best bet.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Under New York's MCLE rules, the general sessions have been approved for a total of 6.0 credit hours, 5.0 credits in Professional Practice and 1.0 credit in Ethics for all attorneys, both newly admitted and experienced. Attendance at the optional Breakfast with the Surrogate's panel is worth an additional 1.0 credit in Professional Practice for all attorneys, both newly admitted and experienced.

DISCOUNTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS: New York State Bar Association members and non-members may receive financial aid to attend this program. Under this policy, anyone who requires financial aid may apply in writing, no later than ten working days prior to the program, explaining the basis of his/her hardship, and if approved, can receive a discount or scholarship, depending on the circumstances. For more details, please contact: Cathy Teeter, New York State Bar Association, One Elk Street, Albany, New York 12207, cteeter@nysba.org.

SPECIAL DISCOUNTS: The Trusts & Estates Law Section has approved a policy which allows for a 50% discount on the registration fees for all Trusts & Estates Law Section members who practice in the public sector or as Court personnel. This discount is not automatic and must be requested in writing as stated above under Discounts and Scholarships. Where applicable, members of the Judiciary may also register and pay the reduced guest registration fee.

Newly-Admitted Attorneys and First Time Attendees can register at a discounted registration fee. Rates are indicated on registration form. To qualify for the First Time Attendee rate you must be a Trusts and Estates Section member who has never attended a Trusts and Estates Section Spring or Fall meeting.

Accommodations for Persons with Disabilities: NYSBA welcomes participation by individuals with disabilities. NYSBA is committed to complying with all applicable laws that prohibit discrimination against individuals on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment of its goods, services, programs, activities, facilities, privileges, advantages, or accommodations. To request auxiliary aids or services or if you have any questions regarding accessibility, please contact Cathy Teeter at 518.487.5573 or cteeter@nysba.org.

JEAN LAFITTE NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK & PRESERVE 419 Decatur St., (504) 589-3882

The park headquarters and its French Quarter Visitor Center is located at Decatur St. There are five other park sites scattered throughout south Louisiana. For info., visit: www.nps.gov/jela

THE CABILDO, 701 Chartres St., (800) 568-6968

Standing near St. Louis Cathedral in the French Quarter this elegant Spanish colonial building was the site of the Louisiana Purchase transfer in 1803, which finalized the US acquisition of the Louisiana Territory. It served as the center of New Orleans government until 1853, when it became the headquarters of the Louisiana State Supreme Court, where the landmark Plessy v. Ferguson decision originated in 1892. Since 1908 it has been a Louisiana State Museum educating the public about Louisiana history. It houses many rare artifacts of America's history including Napoleon's death mask, one of only four in existence crafted by Dr. Francesco Antommarchi, one of Napoleon Bonaparte's physicians at the time of his death. www.louisianastatemuseum.org

HERMANN-GRIMA HOUSE, 820 St. Louis Street, (504) 274-0746

Take a trip back in time to learn about this bustling 19th-century home, its outbuildings and courtyard. One-third of the objects you will find on display belonged to either the Hermanns or the Grimas. Bygone New Orleans comes to life at the Hermann-Grima House. Learn about the house and its inhabitants – free and enslaved, homeowners and tenants. Hear intriguing stories of fortunes made and lost, disease and death, wars, romance, celebrations, indignities and triumphs, philanthropy and preservation. www.hgghh.org

NEW ORLEANS MUSEUM OF ART, 1 Collins Diboll Circle, (504) 658-4100

Hosting an impressive permanent collection of almost 40,000 objects, the collection, noted for its extraordinary strengths in French and American art, photography, glass, and African and Japanese works. Its Sydney and Walda Besthoff Sculpture Garden is one of the most important sculpture installations in the US with over 60 sculptures situated on a beautifully landscaped site amongst meandering footpaths, reflecting lagoons, Spanish moss-laden 200-year-old oaks, mature pines, magnolias and pedestrian bridges. www.noma.org

NEW ORLEANS SCHOOL OF COOKING, 524 St. Louis St., (504) 525-2665

Learn the basics of Louisiana Cooking in a way you'll never forget. Fun is a primary ingredient in this kitchen! Cajun/Creole experts teach New Orleans specialties such as Gumbo, Jambalaya and Pralines, seasoning them with history, trivia and tall tales. www.neworleansschoolofcooking.com

OGDEN MUSEUM OF SOUTHERN ART, 925 Camp St., (504) 539-9650

Celebrating the art, history and culture of the American South, the dazzling Ogden Museum of Southern Art/University of New Orleans is located in the historic Warehouse Arts District. The Museum is home to the largest and most comprehensive collection of Southern art in the world, showcasing art from 15 Southern states and the District of Columbia and was named an affiliate of The Smithsonian Institution in 2001. Large 20th /21st c. collection. www.ogdenmuseum.org

THE PRESBYTERE, 751 Chartres St., Jackson Square, (504) 568-6968

The Presbytere, designed in 1791 to match the Cabildo, alongside St. Louis Cathedral in the French Quarter stands as a beautiful reminder of both Louisiana's past and present. Originally called Casa Curial or "Ecclesiastical House," it was built on the site of the residence, or presbytere, of the Capuchin monks. It was used for commercial purposes until 1834 when it became a courthouse. In 1911, it became part of the Louisiana State Museum. Two exhibitions are currently on display: "Living with Hurricanes: Katrina and Beyond" tells of rescue, rebuilding and renewal, and "Mardi Gras: It's Carnival Time in Louisiana" captures the fun and fantasy of the annual celebration. www.louisianastatemuseum.org

PHARMACY MUSEUM, 514 Chartres St., (504) 565-8027

Louis Joseph Dufilho, Jr. of New Orleans became America's first licensed pharmacist. Today, Dufilho's 1823 apothecary shop on in the French Quarter houses what is widely believed to be the largest and most diverse pharmaceutical collection in a single location in the United States, containing old patent medicines, books, and pharmaceutical equipment dating back as far as the early 1800s.
