

Emergency Preparedness for Families Affected by the Executive Orders on Immigration Agenda

2:30 p.m - 3:00 p.m	Registration
3:00 p.m. - 3:10 p.m.	Welcome & Introductions
3:10 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.	Overview of Drastic Immigration Changes that Impact Families Increased Immigration Enforcement Evisceration of prosecutorial discretion Enforcement in traditionally off-limits spaces and the “sensitive locations” memo Other issues raised by the Executive Orders
3:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.	Increased Need for Legal Representation in the Face of these Changes Family Safety Planning What does an effective safety plan look like? What are the different custodial/guardianship arrangements available? Seeking out family law expertise or providing a referral for more permanent arrangements. A Private and Public Bar Partnership Existing and Potential models for Family Safety Planning & Immigration consults
5:00 p.m.	Q&A Adjournment

Program Faculty

Honorable Anthony McGinty
Supervising Judge, Ulster County Family Court

Deborah Kearns
Chief Clerk, Albany County Surrogate’s Court

Sarah Rogerson
Director, Immigration Law Clinic, Albany Law School

Alima Atoui
Law Clerk to Judge Pettit, Albany County Surrogate’s Court

Gerald Wallace
Director, NYS Kinship Navigator, Public Service Professor at U. Albany (SUNY)