You're Here Before You Know It.

Silver Bay may be out of the city, but it isn't out of reach. We make getting here easy:

By Car. Silver Bay is 90 minutes from Albany, NY. Take the Adirondack Northway (87) to Exit 24, drive east five miles to the road's end at Route 9N. Turn left and drive north approximately 13 miles to Silver Bay. Look for SILVER BAY ASSOCIATION signs on the right two miles past Sabbath Day Point.

By Air. Albany, NY and Burlington, VT airports are served by both commuter and major airlines, with connections from anywhere in the nation.

By Bus. Buses from New York City stop at our door in the summer, buses from other major cities stop in Lake George Village and Glenn Falls.

By Train. Amtrak trains stop in Fort Ticonderoga (20 minutes from Silver Bay) year-round.

For more information, call 518-543-8833.

DRUNKS: AN AMERICAN HISTORY
BY CHRIS FINAN (Morse Hall)

Author Christopher M. Finan will discuss his latest book, Drunks, which traces the history of the country's struggle with alcoholism and the emergence of a search for sobriety that began among Native Americans in the colonial period. The book includes the dramatic story of Bill Wilson and Dr. Bob Smith, and the creation of Alcoholics Anonymous, which survived its tumultuous early years and finally proved that alcoholics could stay sober for a lifetime.
