

M. Salman Ravala, Esq.
Criscione Ravala, LLP
90 Park Avenue, 17th Floor
New York, NY 10016
sravala@lawcrt.com
www.lawcrt.com
(212) 920-7142

Attorney M. Salman Ravala, Esq. is a Senior Partner with Criscione Ravala, LLP's New York City office where he focuses on Commercial Litigation & ADR, International Law, and Non-Profit Law. He litigates in New York state and federal court and also serves as a neutral on various ADR rosters including FINRA, NYS Part 137 Fee Dispute Panel, New York State Court, and U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Previously, Mr. Ravala was in-house associate general counsel to a large global equipment distributor and also served as Visiting Legal Scholar to the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs, as well as, Law Clerk to U.S. District Court Judge William M. Hoeveler in Miami, Florida. Mr. Ravala has authored legal articles on ADR that have been published by New York University, as well as the American Bar Association and the World Bank's International Finance Corporation. A 2016 American Arbitration Association Judge Higginbotham Fellow, he is a recipient of the 2013- 2017 NYSBA Empire State Counsel Award, the 2015-2018 Super Lawyers® Rising Stars Award, and the 2015-2017 Martindale-Hubbell® "Preeminent" Client Achievement Award. Mr. Ravala is a graduate of Syracuse Law School and is admitted to practice with the Bar of New York and Court of International Trade.