

How to Survive and Thrive as Pro Bono Counsel: Avoiding Pitfalls and Managing the Collateral Impact on Lawyer Well-Being

October

16

6:00 PM - 8:00
PM

2 MCLE Credits
(Ethics)

[123 Remsen
Street
Brooklyn, New York 11201](#)

Course Description:

This program will offer expert guidance on how to survive and thrive as pro bono counsel, how to recognize and navigate the ethics issues that may arise, how to communicate effectively and deal with some common obstacles, how to manage a limited-scope representation so that both you and your pro bono client are benefiting to the maximum extent from the representation. The presentation will also offer expert advice on recognizing and coping with the stress associated with practicing law. Panelists will discuss aspects of lawyer well-being, the signs and symptoms of unhealthy ways to deal with stress, and the ways in which these can sabotage a lawyer's practice, jeopardize his or her health, and create discipline

RSVP is requested.
Please call:
(718) 624-0675
or

REGISTER ONLINE

problems.

Opening Remarks:

- Hon. Elizabeth S. Stong
US Bankruptcy Court Eastern District
New York

Presentations by:

- Sidney Cherubin, Esq., Director of
Legal Services
Brooklyn Bar Association Volunteer
Lawyers Project
- John R. Urban, Esq., Chair
Brooklyn Bar Association Lawyers
Helping Lawyers Committee
- Randi Anderson, JD, DSW (abd'19),
LCSW-R, ACSW, C-ASWCM

Cost:

- BBA Member FREE
- Non-Member $20

+$20 for walk up registration