

AN EVENING OF
- WINE, ART -

AND THE MILLENNIALS

Join us for an evening of wine, art and conversation with Lauren Stiller Rikleen (author of "You Raised Us - Now Work With Us: Millennials, Career Success, and Building Strong Workplace Teams") as she explores the myths and realities of Millennials in the workplace. More Millennials are joining the workplace, raising questions as to how they can work effectively with colleagues from other generations. Learn how to benefit from generational differences as Ms. Rikleen offers practical recommendations and strategies for strengthening intergenerational teams.

Attendees will also have the opportunity to peruse the extensive impressionist and post-impressionist art collection at the Wally Findlay Galleries while enjoying wine, hors d'oeuvres and networking. The gallery is also currently exhibiting the collection "Asian Masters" showcasing pieces by classic and contemporary artists Seung-Hee Lee, Tadashi Asoma, Le Pho and Vu Cao Dam.

Admission: $25

Date: Wednesday, April 30, 2014

Time: 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Location: Wally Findlay Galleries, 124 E. 57th Street, New York, NY
(between Park Ave. & Lexington Ave.)

We would like to thank Wally Findlay Galleries, its' CEO and Chairman Mr. James R. Borynack and Ms. Stephanie Clark for their generous sponsorship of this event. Wally Findlay Galleries International first opened its doors in 1870 in Kansas City, Missouri. By 1964, it had opened three more galleries in Chicago, Palm Beach and New York City.

Today, the New York City gallery space boasts 5 floors of exhibition space, spread over 8,800 square feet, and a proven commitment to supporting fine arts, as well as to the development of women professionals.

