Matthew Flanagan is a 1989 graduate of Fordham University and received a Juris Doctorate degree from St. John's University School of Law in 1992. He is a skilled litigator with extensive trial and appellate experience in the area of legal malpractice defense, professional liability and general litigation. He has successfully argued numerous appeals in the Appellate Divisions for the First, Second and Third Departments, and New York's highest court: the Court of Appeals.

Mr. Flanagan has been named annually to the New York Super Lawyers list as one of the top attorneys in the New York Metropolitan area since 2012, and has been awarded a rating of AV Preeminent™ by Martindale-Hubbell. The Rating is the Highest Possible Rating in both Legal Ability and Ethical Standards, and was awarded following a Peer Review Rating Process, which included surveys of judges and other attorneys. He has also been named annually as one of the top professional liability and legal malpractice defense attorneys on Long Island by LexisNexis Martindale-Hubbell, and has been given an AVVO rating of "Superb" (10.0 out of 10.0).

Mr. Flanagan is admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. He is a member of the American Bar Association, New York State Bar Association, the Nassau County Bar Association and the Theodore Roosevelt American Inn of Court.

Mr. Flanagan is a frequent lecturer regarding legal malpractice prevention and defense, and ethics and professional liability.
