

Judith M. Nolfo, Esq.
Ulster County Surrogate's Court
240 Fair Street, Suite 208
Kingston, NY 12401
jnolfo@nycourts.gov
(845) 481-9342

Judith Nolfo received a B.B.A. in Accounting and a J.D. from Albany Law School. She is the Court Attorney for the Ulster County Surrogate's Court in Kingston, New York. She was previously in private practice for twenty years. Her private practice included the unique area of estate planning and advanced directives for veterans. Judy is a Vice Chair of the Veterans Committee for the New York State Bar Association Elder Law and Special Needs Section, a member of the Trust and Estates Section, the Alternative Dispute Resolution Section and the Veterans Committee of the New York State Bar Association. Judy is also a member of the Ulster County and Albany County Bar Associations, and the Women's Bar Association of the State of New York. Judy has long been involved with pro bono representation and advocacy for veterans. She is the proud daughter of Jacob Nolfo, World War II United States Navy veteran.