

Dirk Marschhausen, Esq.
Marschhausen & Fitzpatrick PC
73 Heitz Place
Hicksville, NY 11801
dmarschhausen@marschfitz.com
(516) 747-8000

Dirk Marschhausen has been a member of the firm of Marschhausen & Fitzpatrick, P.C. since its inception in 2000. He has worked within the insurance field since completing his law degree in 1989 at Union University's Albany Law School. Mr. Marschhausen is a graduate of St. Lawrence University where he obtained a Bachelor of Arts Degree. He has over 25 years of experience representing the insurance community, not only prosecuting subrogation actions but also in the litigation and trial of coverage, professional liability and casualty matters ranging from auto liability to labor law claims. The firm conducts its practice throughout New York State. He has presented at numerous CLE events including for the New York State Bar Association, New York State Insurance Fund, National Business Institute, National Association of Subrogation Professionals, New York Claims Association, and New York Self-Insurers Association on various insurance issues including topics Liens in Third-Party Actions, The Intersection of Third-Party Actions and Workers' Compensation, Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Coverage. He has also taught the section "So Many Liens--- So Little Time" for the NYSBA's Law School for Insurance Professionals program the past 3 years. He is a regular contributor to Subrogator Magazine on Workers' Compensation and No- Fault lien issues. He presently focuses his practice in the area of subrogation, in particular property damage claims arising out of fire and water damage, indemnification and coverage actions, as well as statutory lien and benefits recovery/subrogation arising from personal injury accidents. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association, New York Self Insurance Association, New York Claims Association and the National Association of Subrogation Professionals