Rona L. Platt is a Vice President and Corporate Counsel at the Enstar Group, where she is the head of licensing for the United States operations of the international insurance holding company system. She is the former Chief Legal Officer of The Wright Insurance Group, LLC, where she oversaw all legal operations of the business, including representing the various members of the group before insurance regulators, managing outside counsel, preparing insurance policy forms for group members and their outside partners, and providing legal support to the organization. She joined the legal department of Wright Risk Management Company, a member of The Wright Insurance Group in 2009 as Associate General Counsel. Previously, Ms. Platt was a partner at Congdon, Flaherty, O'Callaghan, Reid, Donlon, Travis & Fishlinger, where she was the supervising attorney of the Insurance Law Group. While at Congdon Flaherty, Ms. Platt represented the interests of carriers in all aspects of insurance coverage litigation, from pretrial matter through appeals, and assisted carriers in reaching coverage determinations. Her practice also included reinsurance, commercial litigation and legal malpractice defense.

Ms. Platt received her bachelors degree and juris doctorate from Hofstra University. She is a member of the Association of Corporate Counsel, the New York State Bar Association, the Nassau County Bar Association, and the Theodore Roosevelt American Inns of Court. She is also a member of the Amicus Committee of the Defense Association of New York. Prior to moving to an in-house role, Ms. Platt was named as a New York Metro Area Super Lawyer® in the insurance coverage area for three consecutive year
