NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

The Torts, Insurance and Compensation Law Section – Supporting Attorneys at Trial for More Than 45 Years

About the Torts, Insurance and Compensation Law Section

The Section is unique in that it focuses on substantive and procedural issues facing attorneys practicing in the area of torts, insurance and compensation law. It consists of both plaintiffs and defense attorneys. The Committees reflect the focus of the Section, with over 15 Committees and Divisions as listed on the back cover. Some include:

Automobile Liability
Information Technology
Insurance Coverage
Toxic Tort
Workers' Compensation

The Section members communicate electronically through listserves on legal issues and legislation as they arise. In addition, a number of events are held throughout the year offering members the chance to network, increase their knowledge and exchange ideas with colleagues that share their interests.

Why Join?

- Network with attorneys across New York;
- Receive the Section's Journal with informative and relevant articles of interest;
- Stay informed of relevant legal and procedural issues in your area of practice;
- Be informed of pending legislation;
- Access to electronic listserves to communicate and ask questions of attorneys across the State;
- Advocate positions on pending legislation affecting practitioners.
- The Section actively cultivates mentorship opportunities for attorneys of diverse backgrounds.

- The Section warmly welcomes families and friends to its meetings, which feature inclusive activities as well as great CLE.

Exclusive Online Resources

As a member of the Section you have access to our wonderful website: www.nysba.org/ticl. Among the resources available for Section members on the website are: archived, searchable Section publications; access to the TICL Section e-community discussion forums (blog and listserv), and substantive case reviews via Loislaw LawWatch search results on topics of interest to the Section.
