

Danielle B. Shalov, Esq.

New York Law School

185 West Broadway

New York, NY 10013

Danielle.shalov@nyls.edu

212-431-2100

Danielle B. Shalov is an attorney and mediator with offices in Rye Brook, New York. Ms. Shalov is an adjunct professor at New York Law School where she runs the Mediation Clinic. She also serves as an adjunct professor at The Elisabeth Haub School of Law where she teaches: Advanced Appellate Advocacy, Forensic Evidence, and Mediation. Ms. Shalov volunteers with The New York Peace Institute (formerly Safe Horizons) and Cluster. She is a member of the Surrogate's Court mediation program working group.

Ms. Shalov began her career as a litigation associate at Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP. She later joined the Law Offices of Gerald L. Shargel where she specialized in criminal law. Ms. Shalov then joined The Fund for Modern Courts, a nonpartisan, nonprofit dedicated to court reform, where she was the Director of The Citizens Jury Project.

Ms. Shalov received her BA, magna cum laude, from Kenyon College and her JD, magna cum laude, from The Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa Society and Order of the Coif.