

Letter to Client re: Tax Consequences

[Date]

[Name of Client]
[Address of Client]

Dear _____:

This letter will confirm that I have advised you that there may be tax consequences arising out of the [divorce / separation] agreement to be signed with your [husband / wife]; that prior to signing the agreement, you have obtained tax advice from [Name and Address] relating to the agreement; that no tax advice has been furnished by me upon which you have relied; and that you have considered and relied upon the information and recommendations of your above-named tax advisor.

Very truly yours,

[Name of Attorney]

The above is acknowledged to be true:

[Name of Client]