

Artificial Intelligence Webinar Series

Wednesday, March 21, 2018 – What Is Artificial Intelligence (“AI”)? How Does It Work?

What Are the Potential Implications of AI in General, and for Your Practice?

1.0 MCLE Credit in Professional Practice

Wednesday, April 18, 2018 – The Growing Use of Artificial Intelligence Applications in the Legal Profession and Their Potential Impact on Your Practice

1.0 MCLE Credit in Professional Practice

Wednesday, May 16, 2018 – Artificial Intelligence and Data Privacy/Protection: Big Data, U.S. Data Privacy Laws, and the EU General Data Protection Regulation

1.0 MCLE Credit in Professional Practice

Wednesday, June 20, 2018 – Artificial Intelligence (“AI”) and Legal Ethics: How the Rules of Professional Conduct Bear on the Use of AI in Your Legal Practice

1.0 MCLE Credit in Ethics

This series is comprised of four one-hour lunchtime CLE programs. Register for any one at $75 per program, or register for all four programs for $200 and save $50 a program.

Learn more at www.nysba.org/AIWebinarSeries

Sponsored by the Committee on Technology and the Legal Profession

Committee on Technology and the Legal Profession

The Committee on Technology and the Legal Profession in keeping NYSBA on the cutting-edge of technological developments is proud to announce a four-part webinar series on artificial intelligence which will feature some of the top authorities on artificial intelligence in the nation. This one-of-a-kind series will enlighten attendees on this new and exciting world of AI and how AI can assist in the practice of law.

Committee Chair: Mark A. Berman, Esq. | Ganfer & Shore, LLP

www.nysba.org/TechCommittee