Prior to signing my Will, I was informed that:

- C. Absent an agreement to the contrary, any person, including an attorney, who serves as my Trustee is entitled to receive statutory commissions for services rendered as a Trustee of each applicable trust;
- D. Absent the execution of this document, the attorney who prepared my Will, a then-affiliated attorney or an employee of such attorney or of a then-affiliated attorney who serves as my Executor would be entitled to receive one-half of the commissions that he or she otherwise would be entitled to receive; and
- E. If such attorney serves as my Executor and/or Trustee, and if my attorney, another attorney or the law firm affiliated with such attorney renders legal services in connection with my Executor's and/or my Trustee's official duties, my attorney or the law firm that renders those services will be entitled to receive just and reasonable compensation for those legal services, in addition to the commissions to which my Executor and/or my Trustee will be entitled.
