Bari Wolf is an associate at Vernon & Ginsburg, LLP. Her practice encompasses disability claims, housing law including condo/coop and rent regulatory matters, and litigation and transactional work in real estate. Ms. Wolf handles animal law issues including dangerous dog issues, nuisance claims, asserting accommodation claims, and statutory and contract rights to keep a companion animal in the home. Ms. Wolf serves on the New York City Bar Association Animal Law Committee and the New York State Bar Association Committee on Animals and the Law. She has organized and spoken on numerous panels and CLEs on animal law issues. Ms. Wolf is a lifelong vegetarian and her family lives in Brooklyn with their dog Buffie.
